Presenting
the 1967
VIRGINIAN

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
PATSY PAUL

BUSINESS MANAGER
JEAN VIA

Dedication

*With a love of art and an abundant talent in this field;
With enthusiastic support for the proposed Fine Arts Building;
By promoting many programs of Southern Culture;
By readily giving advice as members of our faculty, this year, and
And, by having a deep and sincere interest in all of our students, Southern College,*

MISS VIRGINIA BEDFORD has received our esteem and we are that we dedicate the 1967 VIRGINIAN.

MISS VIRGINIA BEDFORD

Longwood takes its form in buildings,
 in things, in people
 It has proven its worth and now
 expands to meet the future

close to the 1967 VIRGINIAN, years of important years become echoes of memories of column and chimes and of those whom we may never see again. I am not afraid for Longwood has the 1967 VIRGINIAN.

The 1967 VIRGINIAN would like to express a deep appreciation and thank you to the following who have helped make this possible:

Miss Virginia Benford, our general and business advisor, for her many hours of support and help.

Mr. Foster Gresham, our literary advisor, for his time spent in proof-reading and literary criticisms.

Mr. Edgar Thomas and Mrs. Eugene Philbeck for their assistance in securing pictures.

The Administration, Faculty, and Student Body for their cooperation.

Mr. Don Hall and the Don Hall Studios for the outstanding photography. We especially thank Mr. Hall for his willingness to take pictures at any place or at any angle.

Mr. W. L. Burton and the C. W. Warthen Company for publishing our yearbook. A special thanks goes to Mr. Burton for his invaluable suggestions and patience.

The Staff—an extra special thanks—for time spent and for a job well done.

For Joan Walter and Carol Anthony, next year's editor-in-chief and business manager, we wish much success in their publication.

And you, the recipient of this book, we hope that you will find here what we have tried to create—memories of a wonderful year at Longwood which will always remain alive within the pages of this book.

Jean Via, Business Manager
Patsy Paul, Editor-in-Chief
